

Guoqiang CAI Partner

Dispute Resolution | Banking and Finance Real Estate and Infrastructure

+86 21 5253 3423

guoqiang.cai@meritsandtree.com

Shanghai

Guoqiang Cai is a partner at Merits&Tree Law Offices. Prior to joining M&T, he was a partner at Beijing W&H Law Firm and had also worked in a Japanese company for many years.

Mr. Cai specializes in dispute resolution, banking and finance, real estate and construction. He has over a decade of legal experience and has represented in numerous litigation cases, including financial loan contract disputes, financial leasing contract disputes, entrusted wealth management contract disputes, and insurance subrogation rights disputes. Mr. Cai also has extensive experience in the dispute resolution related to construction, house sales, house leasing, and intermediary contract disputes.

Achievements

- Representing a bank's Shanghai branch in financial loan contract dispute cases, participating in litigation and enforcement practice in different levels of courts in Shanghai
- Representing an insurance company in disputes over the subrogation rights of insurers, including litigation and enforcement
- Representing an asset management company in financial loan contract disputes, presenting at the Guangzhou Intermediate People's Court and Guangdong Provincial Higher People's Court in Guangdong Province.
- Representing a real estate development company in construction engineering contract disputes and commercial housing pre-sale contract disputes
- Representing a commercial management company in lease contract disputes, providing legal services regarding litigation and enforcement

- Representing a real estate consulting Company in intermediary contract disputes, providing legal services regarding litigation and enforcement

Education

LL.M., Kobe University

LL.B., Fudan University

Admissions

PRC Bar

Language

Chinese, English, Japanese